 Kiti, Larnaca

This detached house in Kiti, Cyprus, is offered off plan at an asking price of 595,000 EUR plus VAT, with 198 square meters of internal space and an A energy efficiency rating.

The internal layout accommodates four bedrooms and two bathrooms.

Outside, the house sits within its own garden, and the property is within easy reach of the highway, with everyday amenities close by.

Kiti is a village in Cyprus's Larnaca District, set on the island's southern coastal plain a short distance from the city of Larnaca. It retains a traditional core, with newer low-rise housing extending around it, a pattern common to the district's smaller settlements. The flat coastal terrain and the village's position near Larnaca give residents access to both open countryside and a nearby town center, with the everyday amenities typical of a village of this size close at hand.
